

Note 65th Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. BENNETT LINDSAY

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Lindsay also can claim the honor of possibly being Wasatch County's oldest living couple, observed their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary on November 23rd.

A family celebration was held on Thanksgiving Day at the Center Creek Ward Chapel, where a delicious dinner was served to about 75 of their descendants. The gathering not only observed the wedding anniversary but also the recent birthdays of both Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay, he, his 88th birthday, and Mrs. Lindsay, her 85th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay raised a family of 11 children (3 sets of twins), eight of whom survive, and now boast of 49 grandchildren and 52 great-grandchildren, which in itself must be somewhat of a record.

The Lindsay couple were both born and have spent their entire life in the Heber Valley. They lived their most active years in Center Creek and Lake Creek where they were successful in the ranching and livestock business. In later years they sold their ranch and moved to Heber City where they now reside.

Both have rendered lifelong service to the community and to their church. Sarah has been president of the Relief Society and Primary organizations and was chosen Wasatch County Mother of the Year in 1959.

Bennett was Bishop of the Center Ward for 22 years, President of the Farm Bureau and member of the School Board.

After six years of married life he was called on a mission for the church.

It is a very unusual coincidence that Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay, also held the honor of being County's oldest living married couple, having lived together 67 years.

We all wish the Lindsay family many happy returns and wish them good health and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Blackley, Daryl Provost and son, Steven, drove to California, to spend the holiday and weekend with Bill and Louise Blackley and family in their lovely new home at Hacienda Heights. They saw Disneyland, the wax museum, and other interesting sights, had a pleasant visit, called Stephen Mahoney on the phone, shopped and came home in the rain on Sunday.

Sorry to report Farrell Reynolds is at the Wasatch County Hospital receiving treatment for ear trouble. Hope he will soon be back at the Wave Office.

Raymond Wright is also there for medical care as he was in a truck accident and bruised quite badly.
